Thank you, Jason.

The Business Licensing team has confirmed that the application itself looks good, they just need to collect the appropriate supporting documentation.

- Letter of Exemption – Form 501C3
- Articles of Incorporation
- Current list of Officers, if different than, or not already provided in the Articles

One thing to note is that the address on the application appears to be different than what we're seeing on the initial review. If we can't tie the addresses together in the supporting documents (business v. mailing), we may have to submit a revised application noting different business/mailing addresses. I just wanted to flag this early so we're ready to pivot in case the request for a revised application comes.

I'll submit everything on your behalf, once received, and keep this moving.

Thanks again,
Courtney

Good Morning, Courtney. Please let us know if all looks good on the attached application for you to walk it down and submit on our behalf — thank you again so much for that generous offer. I know you mentioned that fees were waived for nonprofits, but please do let us know if you need a credit card or other form of electronic payment for any incidentals to get this through ASAP.

We very much appreciate your assistance with expediting the process!

Warmest,
Shannon

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Martin
