8. REPORTS/COMMUNICATIONS/INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

8.1 16-2561 STUDY SESSION: SENATE BILL 5 MANDATED TITLE 16 AMENDMENT RELATED TO DEVELOPMENT IN 200-YEAR FLOODPLAINS

Legislation Text

Attachment A - SB5 Presentation

Tom Pace, Deputy Director of Planning & Engineering - introduced John Maguire, Flood Manager and SB 5 consultant

Joe Cunningham, member of the public - asked the Planning Commission if there was a Public Hearing for 425 East Harding Way scheduled for the meeting

Tom Pace, Deputy Director of Planning & Engineering - responded that no hearing regarding 425 East Harding Way was scheduled for the current meeting and advised Mr. Cunningham to contact Planning Manager Richard Larrouy for clarification

John Maguire - provided the study session with the aid of a PowerPoint presentation (Attachment A) and responded to questions from the commissioners with additional comments from Deputy Director Tom Pace.

9. COMMISSIONERS COMMENTS

Vice Chair Jobrack - noted he will not be able to attend the next Planning Commission meeting

Commissioner Davie - requested a small update on the General Plan from staff

David Stagnaro - responded to the request from Commissioner Davie, noting that the plan is a 26 month program that began in March and that additional information would be provided to the Planning Commission in the future

Tara Mazzanti, Deputy City Attorney - noted that because the General Plan Update was not noticed on the agenda, there should not be much more conversation on the topic

Commissioner Eley - stated that the Senate Bill 5 study session was very helpful and thanked staff and the consultant

Commissioner Aguillard - asked a question regarding when the Cultural Heritage Board reviewed items

Tom Pace, Deputy Director - explained that the purview of the Cultural Heritage Board is to review applications for development in historic districts or effecting historical landmarks, noting that there have not been many applications for development in historic districts or effecting historical landmarks
