

ORDINANCE NO.AN ORDINANCE AMENDING TITLE 16, CHAPTER 16.80, SECTION 16.80.310, AND CHAPTER 16.240, SECTION 16.240.020 OF THE STOCKTON MUNICIPAL CODE RELATED TO ACCESSORY DWELLING UNITS AND DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF STOCKTON, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION I. FINDINGS AND INTENT

The City Council of the City of Stockton finds that the current Stockton Municipal Code provisions for accessory dwelling units and development standards require amendment in order to comply with state zoning law (Government Code 65852.2).

The City Council finds that an amendment which addresses specific requirements for accessory dwelling unit and development standards identified in state zoning law (Government Code 65852.2) will bring the city into compliance.

SECTION II: AMENDMENT OF CODE

Title 16, Chapter 16.80, Section 16.80.310 of the Stockton Municipal Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

16.80.310 ~~Secondary dwelling units.~~Accessory Dwelling Units

This section provides standards for the establishment of ~~secondary residential units~~ accessory dwelling units.

- A. Number of ~~Secondary~~ Accessory Dwelling Units Allowed. Only one (1) ~~secondary~~ accessory dwelling unit shall be allowed on a single-family parcel.
- B. Site General Requirements. A parcel proposed for an ~~an~~ secondaryaccessory dwelling unit shall comply with all the following requirements:
 1. ~~The secondary accessory dwelling unit may be located on any residentially-zoned parcel that is occupied with a single-family dwelling unit or will be improved with a single-family dwelling unit prior to or at the same time as the construction of the accessory dwelling unit containing the minimum allowable parcel size and lot frontage and shall be in compliance with the height, setback, and lot coverage for the zoning district in which it is located. Except as otherwise provided in this section, secondary dwelling units shall comply with the requirements for the main structure;~~
 2. The floor area of a detached accessory dwelling unit shall not exceed 1,200 square feet. The calculation of the floor area of the detached accessory dwelling unit includes all floor area within the building envelope of the entire detached structure, excluding the garage space and exterior stairs;

3. The increased floor area of an attached accessory dwelling unit shall not exceed 50 percent of the existing living area, with a maximum increase in floor area of 1,200 square feet. "Living area" means the interior habitable area of a dwelling unit including basements and attics but does not include a garage or carport or an accessory structure. If a garage or carport is provided for the attached accessory dwelling unit, the calculation of the floor area of the accessory dwelling unit does not include the floor area of the garage or carport;

4. An accessory dwelling unit shall not be included in the calculation of the density of the lot on which the accessory dwelling unit is located; and

—5. No passageway shall be required in conjunction with the construction of an accessory dwelling unit. A "passageway" means a pathway that is unobstructed clear to the sky and extends from a street to one entrance of the accessory dwelling unit.

2. — There is only one (1) existing owner-occupied single-family detached main dwelling unit on the parcel; and

3. — Only one (1) curb cut shall be permitted per parcel and no additional driveways or access points shall be created to accommodate the secondary or main dwelling unit.

DC. Development Standards~~Location of Secondary Unit.~~ A secondary dwelling unit may be within, attached to, or detached from the existing main dwelling unit. If detached, the secondary unit shall be separated from the main dwelling unit a minimum of 10 feet and shall comply with all setback requirements for the primary structure.

1. The height, lot coverage, and setback requirements applicable to the lot on which the accessory dwelling unit is located apply to the accessory dwelling unit, except for the following:

a. No setback is required for an existing accessory legal structure that is converted to an accessory dwelling unit; and

b. An accessory dwelling unit constructed within newly added space above an existing accessory legal structure shall have a minimum rear-yard setback of five feet; and a minimum side-yard setback required by the zoning designation for the primary dwelling unit or five feet, whichever is less. The minimum setbacks stated above only apply to the newly added space above the accessory structure, and not to the existing accessory structure.

2. There are no minimum off-street parking requirements for accessory dwelling units. If off-street parking space is voluntarily provided for the accessory dwelling unit, it may be uncovered, covered, or enclosed, but must be on a paved surface and accessible from a paved driveway.

ED. Design Standards. A secondary dwelling unit shall:

1. — Have a floor area not exceeding 30 percent of the living area of the main dwelling for an attached unit, or 1,200 square feet of floor area for a detached unit;

21. An attached and detached accessory dwelling unit shall be architecturally compatible with the main dwelling unit and subject to design review by the Director;
32. Contain separate kitchen and bathroom facilities and have a separate entrance from the main dwellingNo portion of an accessory dwelling unit balcony, deck, or open stair landing that faces the rear lot line or the side lot nearest to the accessory dwelling unit shall be higher than three feet from the ground;
3. For accessory dwelling units that do not meet the zoning designation's setback for the main dwelling unit, no portion of any window that faces the lot line where the setback requirement for the main dwelling unit is not met may extend above 10 feet from the ground-;
4. An accessory dwelling unit located within the Magnolia historic overlay district or accessory to a landmark shall not require a certificate of appropriateness, as identified in Chapter Section 16.28.060 (Magnolia historic overlay district) and Chapter Section 16.220.070 (Landmarks), and instead shall be subject to design review in compliance with Chapter 16.120 (Design Review);
5. An accessory dwelling unit located within a design review overlay district shall be subject to Design Review in compliance with Chapter 16.120 (Design Review), except if the front, side and/or rear is not visible from a public right-of-way or internal circulation route; and
6. An accessory dwelling located within the Channel area overlay district shall not require a Use Permit, as identified in Chapter Section 16.28.040 (Channel area overlay district), and instead shall be subject to design review in compliance with Chapter 16.120 (Design Review).

E. Conversion of existing structures. The requirements in subsection A through D, above, do not apply to an accessory dwelling unit that (1) is entirely contained within an existing single-family dwelling unit or existing legally-constructed accessory structure, (2) is not located within the Magnolia historic overlay district or, if located within the Magnolia historic overlay district, does not involve modifications to the exterior of the existing structure, (3) does not involve a landmark or, if involving a landmark, does not involve modifications to the exterior of the landmark, (4) has exterior access independent from the existing main dwelling unit, and (5) the side and rear setback are sufficient for fire safety.

F. Parking. The secondaryaccessory dwelling unit shall not be subject to minimum parking requirements. Further, when an existing garage, carport or covered parking structure is demolished in conjunction with the construction of an accessory dwelling unit, there is no minimum requirement for replacement of off-street parking be provided one (1) covered off-street parking space in a carport or garage, in addition to that required for the main dwelling unit, in compliance with Chapter 16.64 (Off-Street Parking and Loading Standards).

G. Rental of Unit. An secondary accessory dwelling unit may be rented, although rental is not required. The secondary accessory dwelling unit shall not be sold separately from the main dwelling unit.
