Interests & Experiences

Please tell us about yourself and why you want to serve.

I wrote a book entitled Herstory of the Hairstory, which is about the psychological implications hair has on African American Women. I have experience in working with a diverse population for the majority of my life. I grew up in Livermore and I was the only African American in the majority of my educational experiences. I have a different lens on incarceration and would love to be a part of transition and new development.

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission.

I have been trained in forensic assessment and have worked extensively with the prison population as a clinical psychologist. I worked with sex offenders 290 registrants in the State of California. I am aware of the ways to assist this Board in dealing with the correctional population.

Interests & Experiences

Please tell us about yourself and why you want to serve.

My name is Dharma Arokiadass, I am currently the Director of Pharmacy at Stockton Rehab. I bring to this Advisory Committee a diverse background in healthcare, encompassing 23 years of experience across various healthcare settings, including my tenure at California Correctional Health Care Services. I believe in the transformative potential of the Correctional Health Care Services Advisory Committee, recognizing the pivotal role it plays in the well-being of individuals in correctional facilities. This belief fuels my commitment to dedicating my time, expertise, and energies to furthering the cause of Correctional Health Care Services. The opportunity to serve on this Advisory Committee motivates me and I view my role as an opportunity to contribute meaningfully to the potential improvements and outcomes within the field. I am eager to collaborate closely with fellow committee members who share my commitment to this cause. I firmly believe that with our collective efforts, we can uncover innovative solutions and drive progress in Correctional Health Care Services. In summary, my professional background and my dedication to creating positive change make me an ideal candidate for this role. I am genuinely excited about the prospect of contributing my skills and expertise to this Advisory Committee and working collectively towards the attainment of its objectives.

Please state the reason you would like to be a member of this board/commission.

I am deeply aligned with the mission of the California Correctional Health Care Services Citizens Advisory Committee. This alignment resonates with both my personal values and my professional background. Drawing from my experience working within the California Correctional Health Care Services, I bring knowledge and expertise to the table. My career in Correctional Healthcare has provided me with a comprehensive understanding of the challenges within this domain. This experience has equipped me with the ability to contribute meaningfully to the Advisory Committee's objectives. I fully grasp the importance of this role in our correctional healthcare system. I aim to enhance public awareness of correctional programs, influence progressive directions in correctional policy, and propose strategies for refining and enhancing inmate health programs. I firmly believe that my contributions can play a pivotal role in advancing the mission of the Advisory Committee. I am enthusiastic about the prospect of collaborating with fellow members who share a similar passion for the well-being of individuals and the improvement of correctional healthcare. I firmly believe that collective efforts have the potential to bring about positive change on a substantial scale. I believe that my commitment to the mission, my relevant skills, and my experiences, drives me eager to serve in this capacity. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute effectively to the California Correctional Health Care Services Citizens Advisory Committee and make a meaningful impact on the vital issues it addresses.
